

Alexandria Gazette.

Local Matters.

Sun and Tide Table.

Sun rises tomorrow at 7:08 and sets at 5:19. High water at 1:01 a. m. and 3:17 p. m.

Weather Probabilities.

For this section rain tonight and Saturday; warmer tonight colder Saturday afternoon or night; high southeast to south winds.

DEAN ACQUITTED.

After deliberating about three-quarters of an hour yesterday afternoon, the jury in the Corporation Court returned a verdict of not guilty in the case of the Commonwealth against Charles Dean, indicted in connection with the alleged larceny of a barrel of whiskey from a freight car in the Potomac yards. Commonwealth's Attorney Bent conducted the prosecution and Attorney Edmund Burke, of Washington, represented the accused. As stated in the Gazette of yesterday the case was submitted to the jury without argument. After the acquittal of Dean Mr. Bent informed the court that the State's evidence in the case of Harvey Lusford, indicted in connection with the same theft, was practically the same as that brought out in the Dean case, whereupon the same jury was directed to return a verdict of not guilty in the Lusford indictment. Daring the progress of the Dean trial, Joseph Breen, one of the witnesses for the prosecution, admitted having given false testimony in the preliminary hearing of the case in the Police Court some months ago. No action was taken in reference to his statement.

THE SUBSTATION BILL.

By a unanimous vote the Senate yesterday passed Senator Martin's bill providing for the erection of a substation by the Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington Railroad Company at Seventh and O streets southwest Washington.

The bill was passed by the House on Monday, and stipulations that order of final adoption by the commissioners which designated the foot of Fourteenth street be the site of the substation. The enactment of this bill sets at rest the squabble that has been going on between the commissioners and the railroad authorities since the Fourteenth street site was unfavorably reported by Mr. Macfarland.

Aside from the request made by Senator Binnick yesterday that no immediate action be taken, the Senate unanimously approved of the measure. Mr. Martin explained that the commissioners and the railroad authorities were in favor of his bill, and Senator Gallinger in a few remarks urged the passage of the measure.

By the terms of the act the railroad company must begin the construction of the substation within thirty days, and the structure must be completed within four months. The commissioners are to supervise the erection of the building.

GAME SEASON CLOSES.

The open season for shooting game of all sorts will close with the end of this week. The sporting fraternity declare that game of all sorts has been unusually plentiful this year, birds being large and fat. The winter has been very mild so far, and the absence of snow has enabled them to feed freely. The game wardens of all the cities and counties are giving notice that they will see that the law is rigidly enforced after this week, and the possession of game will incur the penalty of the law. Game cannot be shipped from the state, and all the restaurants and cafes that have stocks on hand will have to dispose of the same before February 1.

EXCELLENT SHOW.

When a thing is good—whether it be in the eating or drinking line, or an entertainment—it should be spoken of. Such is a fact when referring to the moving pictures and vaudeville show at the Opera House this week. To those who appreciate talent the height of the profession is embodied in the clever black face singing and dancing comedians and monologues—Bauer and Carl—and the singing of Miss Leah Abbott charms the immense crowds that visit this house. One of the pictures last night "Soaker at the Seaside," was the finest seen for a long time and evoked great applause. Change in vaudeville and pictures to-night.

DEATHS.

Mr. William A. Kelland, an old and well-known resident, died at his home on south Royal street at an early hour this morning. He leaves a widow and six children—five sons and one daughter. Mr. Kelland was born in Charles county, Md., and he became a resident of this city in early childhood. Many years ago, when the "Ferry Tavern," foot of Fairfax street, was an Alexandria institution, the deceased was one of the attaches.

ALWAYS GOOD.

The crowds which nightly patronize the Alexandria Amusement Company are well paid for their coming out and for the amount of money they invest. Last night the show was one of the best given by the management, but they say it will be better tonight. There will be a change in pictures—both talking and silent—and it will do you good to see them. Every Little Bit Helps, Rab, Rab, Rab; Wouldn't You Like to Flirt With Me; and Red Wing are the talking pictures. A Rural Elopement, Innermost Jokes and An All Wool Garment. These pictures will please you.

TO CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY.

The Lincoln Memorial and Emancipation Association of this city will on February 12 celebrate the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln in the Hull Industrial Hall on Montgomery street. W. C. Payne of Washington will be the orator of the occasion. President-elect Taft, Senator Chandler, Judge Terrell and others have been invited to be present. Margous L. Robinson will preside and Samuel B. Bell will be the chairman of the committee of arrangements.

44 pairs of Ladies' and Children's Shoes, mostly all sizes, which formerly sold for $2 to $3.00 a pair, on the bargain counter tomorrow at 25c a pair. John A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King street.

MASONIC FAIR NOTES.

Judge R. T. W. Duke will open the Masonic fair at Army Hall next Monday night.

The voting blanks for the Shrine Jewel can be obtained at M. Ryben & Sons' store, or from Mrs. Raymond Hulsch. Messrs. A. A. Paul and O. P. Angelo are among the candidates for the Jewel.

The names of Mrs. J. F. Birrell and Mrs. Fannie E. Williams were inadvertently omitted in the names of the flower booth committee printed in yesterday's Gazette.

A handsome bible and American flag have been donated by J. E. Knight to be voted to the most popular of the following organizations: Odd Fellows, Red Men, Woodmen, Macabees and Jr. O. U. M. These articles will be at the Masonic booth presided over by Mrs. J. E. Sabin.

A beautiful empire ladies' suit, of old rose, donated by the Kings Palace, Washington, D. C., to the fair, is on exhibition in one of Swan Brothers' show windows. This suit is valued at fifty dollars.

City Engineer Dunn today inspected all the gallery work in the hall and pronounced it perfectly safe.

STAYED TOO LONG.

Lou Hughes, a very large colored woman, came here from Charlottesville on Tuesday and yesterday reported to police headquarters that she had lost her money and could not get home. She was told to telegraph to her husband and later he telegraphed her a sufficient sum to buy a ticket for Charlottesville. In the meantime, however, her husband, Lou Taylor, had gotten up a dance for the benefit of her guest who decided to remain in Alexandria last night. The dance was well attended but several of the men and women got drunk and raised a row. Lou Hughes, Lou Taylor, Mattie Baker and Thomas Pendleton were arrested by Officers Nicholson, Roberts and Arrington and this morning fined $5 each. Not having the money they were sent to jail. The Hughes woman again telegraphed to her husband in Charlottesville who wired that he would get enough money to secure his wife's release and to pay her way home.

PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. Gardner L. Boothe are in Newport: News to attend the wedding of Mrs. Boothe's sister, which will take place in that city tomorrow.

Mrs. Mollie Davis and Mrs. Nellie Curtis Washington, of Norfolk, are the guests of Mrs. C. Randolph Davis of south Washington street. They will spend the next few days visiting the points of interest in this city and Washington.

Mrs. Anderson Summers very delightfully entertained at supper yesterday afternoon at her home on Cameron street. The prizes were awarded Mrs. T. B. Cochran and Miss Francis Danenhof. Mrs. Clarence C. Leadbeater entertained a number of her friends at cards yesterday afternoon at her handsome residence on Washington street.

FUNERAL.

The funeral of Miss Eliza W. Smith, who died in Philadelphia Tuesday, took place from Christ Church at 11:30 o'clock this morning. The services were conducted by Rev. W. J. Minton, rector of that church, and Rev. Dr. R. H. McKim, of Washington. The burial was in the family lot in the old Presbyterian cemetery. The body arrived in this city yesterday and was taken to the home of Mr. George S. French.

The pallbearers were Messrs. H. R. Burke, Douglas Stuart, Henry Wattle, E. C. Leadbeater, Malcolm McLean and Dr. R. H. Slaughter.

A GLOOMY EVENING.

Even though the day has been damp and gloomy there is always a way where there is a will to dispel the shadows which may be scattered around one's life and the best way to accomplish this end is by going up to the Elite Motion Picture House tonight and seeing the magnificent pictures which will be thrown on the canvass. "Beauty and the Beast," "An Unselfish Guest," "Hurry Up, Please," and "For the Sake of a Uniform." These are all good.

"BLOSSOMLAND." As heretofore stated a little play entitled "Blossomland" will be given at Christ Church Parish Hall, tonight, by the Christ Church Guild of the Ministering Children's League. The proceeds will be used for a cot at the Alexandria Hospital. The children for some time past have been rehearsing their parts under the management of Mrs. O. F. Carter, and a good rendition of the little play is expected. The entrance will be from the Washington street front of the hall.

ELECTED BANK CASHIER. Mr. George R. Gary, of Woodstock, has been elected to succeed Mr. C. J. Bowman as cashier of the Mt. Jackson National Bank. Mr. Bowman and his wife will shortly go to Alexandria, from which point he will travel for New York banking firm.—[Harrisonburg Times.]

ROBBERIES.

O. H. Powell, living in the vicinity of Bailey's cross roads, reports that between 300 and 400 pounds of meat, some harness and blackets were stolen from his place last night.

The house of J. T. Hummer, in the same neighborhood, was also robbed of some harness last night.

This morning Mayor Sinclair, of Manassas, notified the Alexandria police that a colored man named Wm. Green had been arrested there while trying to dispose of a saddle and harness.

The police of this city today learned that a stranger who had rented a stable in Friendship alley was acting suspiciously. They raided the premises and arrested a white man named Frank Johnson, who said he came from New York, but had been traveling around the country for some time. In the stable they found a horse, a wagon, a large quantity of meat, harness, blankets, &c. These were all seized, and were held for future examination. The officers making the arrest were Chief Goods, Lieutenant Smith and Officers Ball, Garvey, Raw, Sherwood, Arrington and Young. The Fairfax county people who have recently been robbed, have been notified of the capture.

James Vincent Armstrong was one of those big, strong, clear-minded Americans who are capable of accomplishing most anything. Not long ago he took a little business trip over to Johnny Bull's country and received an invitation from H. R. H. the Prince of Wales, to luncheon. And maybe that wasn't a swell lay out. Well I guess! But greatly to that prince's chagrin, Jim didn't seem greatly impressed with the feed. He told his royal ally that he would prefer a dish of that delicious Auth Ham or those equally delicious Auth Frankfurters, any day, to all the royal delicacies of Europe combined. HOW IS YOUR Watch Running?

WATCH Repairing Always Has Been a Hobby of Ours, To Do the Best Work Possible.

Saunders & Son, JEWELERS—629 King St.—SILVERSMITHS

Is it always fast or slow? Never quite on time. Perhaps the watch is capable of very accurate running but it is not in perfect order. You know the tiny mechanism of a watch absolutely demands that each of the dozens of little parts—springs, wheels, jewels, etc.—be just right, or good timing is out of the question.
